22 itate orders of food and beverages for sale to consumers includes with 23 an order the option of delivery of the order by the third-party food
24 platform, the third-party food platform may not charge the restaurant 25 total fees in excess of 10 percent of the purchase price of the order for 26 the use of the third-party food platform’s services.

27 (b) If a restaurant described in paragraph (a) of this subsection does 28 not offer the option of delivery of the order by the third-party food
29 platform, the third-party food platform may not charge the restaurant
30 total fees in excess of five percent of the purchase price of the order 31 for the use of the third-party food platform’s services.

1 (c) A third-party food platform may not reduce the rate of com-
2 pensation paid to, or garnish the gratuities of, an individual who 3 makes deliveries of orders to consumers on behalf of the third-party
4 food platform as a result of the requirements of this subsection.

5 (3) An individual who makes deliveries of orders to consumers on 6 behalf of a third-party food platform may bring an action against the 7 third-party food platform for a violation of subsection (2)(c) of this 8 section and may recover damages in the amount of $500 for each vio-
9 lation.

10 SECTION 4. A third-party food platform, as defined in section 3 of 11 this 2020 third special session Act, shall meet the requirements estab-
12 lished in section 3 (2) of this 2020 third special session Act not later
